Foreword

THE task of recording a chapter in the living history of a great school is at best problematical. To those of us who have studied in its halls, struggled on its athletic fields, crammed foolish heads in its dormitory rooms for the last time, Mount Hermon represents a period of continual joy and benefit, a stepping stone upward in our pathway to maturity, a helping hand at a time when quitting seemed easy, when the way was blocked, and when encouragement was essential. We on the GATEWAY board shall consider our work well done if we have helped to perpetuate a loyalty which should never die, memories which must never fade, and a spirit of obligation and appreciation which we trust will never grow dim.

In Appreciation

FOUR years ago, we entered Mount Hermon and came under the friendly guiding hand of Dr. Porter. The years have flown by, and now we are ready to leave the school which has meant so much to all of us. We cannot adequately express, in words, our appreciation to the man who guided and counseled us through the first year of adjustment, and who has gradually done more than his share of preparing us to go out into the world and spread Hermon fellowship. There is, in all our hearts, an unexplainable something which was planted by Dr. Porter, and which makes us profoundly thankful to a wise headmaster and a good friend to all who came in contact with him.

The faculty have nourished Dr. Porter's plantings by adding to the store of knowledge and memories that we shall take with us when we leave the hill. To them likewise we are deeply grateful.

The Dedication

THE last remaining teacher appointed by Mr. D. L. Moody, Mr. Roy Hatch, has been for forty years the servant of the Northfield Schools. Buildings have risen around him; vast lawns, thriving shrubs, and tall trees have grown to grace the campus which has been his home for so long; streams of boys have poured in and out of the gates of Hermon in a wild, pulsating, never-ending procession. In the minds of hosts of students who have retained fertile memories of him and his work he is revered as a conscientious and skilled instructor, a genuine and sympathetic friend, and a Christian gentleman. As he leaves the school and faces future years which we trust will be most rewarding and satisfying, we dedicate to Mr. Hatch the GATEWAY for 1940, in grateful recognition of his unselfish service to his thousands of loyal students, to Mount Hermon, and to its church, with the hope that we have perhaps augmented the flood of happy memories which he carries away with him.

COMPOSED of twenty-one men, of whom four are elected annually to serve a period of five years, the Board of Alumni Counsellors has as its purpose the expression of the feelings of the Alumni in matters of school interest. The Board meets three times a year, periods during which constructive criticisms and observations are made.

THE function of the Student Council is to develop in the student body a wise and intelligent self-control, to preserve and regulate beneficial customs and traditions of the school, and to represent the students as a whole in their relations with officials and faculty. In carrying out this vital function, the Council acts in a dual capacity; first as an intermediary organization between the students and faculty, and secondly, as a student disciplinary board.

Acting as an intermediate body, the Council has conducted a number of Open Forums in which constructive criticisms and suggestions, upon which the Council has been glad to work, have been received. Thus the body has been able to make contributions toward the establishment of such new regulations as promise to be for the welfare of the students, as in the case of amendments made to the radio rule this year. The Council has utilized its disciplinary powers in the promotion of character and good citizenship.

The Council wishes to express its grateful appreciation to the faculty and the student body for the spirit of cooperation which has ever prevailed. If succeeding Councils are heirs to such a cooperative spirit in years to come, their problems will be relatively easy to solve.

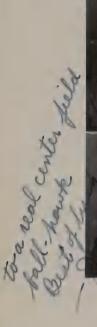

Seated: Johnson, Schwanda, Gunn, Barrows, Pierre. Standing: Benedict, Gifford, Garrison, Pyper, Gale, Gooding.

Class Jeachers

TO MR. AND MRS. POHLMANN, who have been at the helm to steer us through troubles and joys, successful parties and much-enjoyed privileges, and quarantine and good health, we wish to express our sincere appreciation. They have advised us wisely and helped us socially with any problems we have had, no matter how petty. Their door was forever open and ready to welcome us into their friendly home. Mr. and Mrs. Pohlmann have always been the most gracious host and hostess. They have the heartfelt gratitude and respect of each member of the class.

Mr. and Mrs. Sargent and Mr. Ledgard also have been indispensable supplements to our life at Mount Hermon. Our appreciation of them is boundless.

Class History

THE day of September 15, 1936, was a rainy one when we first set foot on the campus which was to be our home for four years. The day was gloomy but the reception was a cheery one. Dr. Porter, then in his second year, had a hearty handshake for us all. We were not the only newcomers that September. There were five new teachers: Messrs. Niblock, Bowman, Johnson, Petschke, and Bisson. Our first introduction to the Seminary was on the 23rd of September when the Boston Symphony played in the auditorium. In October, Scarlet Fever broke out on the campus and the cloak of quarantine descended upon us. A long expected event—the opening of the Hermon cabin—came over the weekend of November 15th. On Thanksgiving Day, most of us, for the first time, saw turkey en masse. West Hall was crowded with alumni and friends for this big banquet of the year. There were hardly any social activities with the Seminary during this first trying year, but the Sacred Concert and Parents' Weekend, which was instituted in 1937, started the ball rolling. That spring, one of our most beloved professors, Mr. Stehen Stark, left after forty years of service to the school and to all those who came in contact with him.

Our Sophomore year started on a bright fall day. We had the prestige of being Sophomores, and we felt much higher than the Freshmen who were just entering. The Jacksons left for Florida and Europe during the middle of the school year. On Founder's Day there was no snow, so Dr. Porter waited until King Winter visited the Hill later in the year, and then called a school holiday and invited several Bavarian skiers to demonstrate their techniques. One of the big events, started in 1938, was the Memorial Day Interscholastic Track Meet. Fifteen schools from New England participated while we played host. Final examinations were soon upon us and before we knew it, we were juniors.

In our Junior year we elected Joseph Schwanda as our class president. The hurricane made itself felt on the campus, uprooting many beloved pines. Several months passed before the immediate damage of the storm was cleared away. The Vienna Choir Boys paid us a visit in November, giving two recitals, one for Hermon and one for the Seminary. There were wonderful parties under the expert planning of Mr. and Mrs. Pohlmann and the Seminary teachers. International Weekend saw many foreign students, who were studying in New England colleges, come to the Hill to speak about their particular part of the globe. The Sacred Concert was of a different type than had been expected. The girls broadcasted on the regular date but our turn came the following Sunday from Mount Hermon. An epidemic of measles had stopped the wheels of progress again. There was, however, no blight to keep away seventeen schools which participated in the Interscholastic Track Meet. The Spring rolled rapidly along and we found ourselves at the end of a third year at Hermon. "The Mikado," given by the choral groups of both schools, wound up our activities for the year.

The long-awaited Senior year finally came and with it came several new professors: Messrs. Marr, Hadley, Gibson, Narroway, Nixon, Wilson, Keith, and Dr. Cummings. Joe Schwanda was again class president and Ben Gunn chairman of the Student Council. Our inheritance of Mountain Day came in the fall as the leaves were turning, and we went with Dr. Porter and other members of the faculty to Mount Monadnock where a good time was had by all. We saw our last Thanksgiving Day together in West Hall, bringing out the turkey to the popular song, "Roll Out the Barrel." Dr. Porter, as is his custom, declared a school holiday a few days before the Spring Vacation. After vacation, a day came which turned out to be a riot between Seniors and underclassmen. It finished before much harm had been done. Unusual snow and rain storms interrupted the coming of Sring, but finally it burst forth in all its glory. Parties, banquets, privileges, and studies made the spring term rush to a grand climax, the Commencement Weekend. And so we left the Hill, much the better for our four years' stay, and with a great store of memories for the future.

Coaches

THIS year's coaching staff of twenty-three has been the most efficient one that ever graced Hermon's Hill to lead the Maroons in their athletic endeavors. The difficulty which was present in previous years in procuring a large and capable staff of coaches has been o'erleaped, and this year's staff has produced many of the best teams Hermon's Hill has seen.

Captains

THE captains of Hermon's athletic teams have held several meetings during the past year and have accomplished many things of note, most of them during the fall season. The Club planned pep rallies on evenings before varsity contests, and it must be congratulated for creating more school spirit than had been shown in recent years. The organization of the bondfire and celebration after the football team defeated Williston and the smooth running of the night basketball games were the crowning achievements of the organization.

1939 Football Season

THE Maroon gridmen, under the able captaincy of Joe Garrison, turned in a fair record for their 1939 season with two victories and two defeats in the interscholastic games.

The gridmen traveled to Massachusetts State College and opened the season with a 6-0 victory over the home-team freshmen on the wind-swept State gridiron. Coach Henriksen's charges scored shortly after the hostilities began, as Johnny Urban slanted off-tackle on a reverse play for twenty yards and the only score of the game. A place-kick for the extra point was unsuccessful.

In the second quarter the freshmen uncorked a strong passing and running attack. They threatened twice, but were checked once by a fifteen-yard penalty and one by a fumble. Another fumble in the third stanza almost proved disastrous, as Hermon recovered on State's II. The Maroons, however, could not penetrate the opponent's defense at this point.

In the last period, Hermon recovered a punt deep in enemy territory, but the Maroons again lacked the drive to push the pigskin across the double stripe.

Wilbraham Academy's undefeated gridmen took the measure of the Maroons in the second game 18-0. In the initial period the redmen of Wilbraham tallied twice. The opponents' flashy halfback tossed a thirty-yard pass into the eager arms of Ireland, who had sneaked behind Hermon's secondary defense. The redmen scored again when they charged around left end on a reverse. The team scored untouched, but, for the second time, their try for the extra point failed. Parker took advantage of some excellent blocking and made a runback of thirty-three yards to his own 43 as the half ended.

After three plays at the beginning of the third stanza had brought the ball to Wilbraham's 36-yard line, an exchange of punts ensued. Two plays later, a pass decided the final score. Parker did some good running during the remainder of the game, but time expired before the Maroons could threaten seriously. His shifty running was one of the few things that gave the home fans anything to rave about.

Two second-quarter touchdowns spelled defeat with a capital "D" in the next game as Vermont Academy took a 13-0 decision from the Maroons. At the outset the orange-and-black men swarmed through Hermon's line to block Captain Garrison's kick and recover it on the Maroon's II. At this point Hermon stopped the home team on the I and punted out to the 40. This strong defensive playing was to no avail, however, for the Vermonters came back roaring, and an eight-yard run by Sawyers produced Vermont's initial tally.

Later in the second period, the Green Mountain boys, aided by crisp downfield blocking and hard, fast running, dashed fifty-one yards to the Maroon's 4, from which point they were able to plunge over. A pass was good for the extra point.

The Mount Hermon football machine closed its season in a blaze of glory as it topped Williston Academy 6-0 on a first-period touchdown. Halfback Urban tossed a pass to Captain Garrison, who went over for the score. The visiting Williston team was outclassed most of the way, but it almost tied the score in the last period, when it began to get going. The game ended, however, before any scoring was done. Hermon's backfield operated magnificently, except for occasional lapses into lethargy. Urban's aerials were hitting their mark a fair percentage of the time, and he and Parker were good for consistent gains on reverse combinations. Wikman plunged well when short gains were necessary, and Spear provided the necessary defensive strength. The line was again erratic, but it disclosed a decided improvement over its earlyseason form.

Soccer

THE soccer team ended its 1939 season with two victories, one tie and one defeat. After winning their first two decisions, the booters were held even by the Williston team and topped by a powerful Deerfield aggregation.

To start the season, the team took a 2-1 game from the Amherst Freshmen. Hermon was one goal behind until the third period, when Hebert took Bunny Rathbun's corner kick and sent it past the goalie. The 1-1 tie was broken in the second overtime period, during which Tippy Kellogg, captain-elect, sank Hebert's rebound from the goalpost to win the game. In their next encounter the booters continued their winning ways by defeating Wilbraham 3-2. The first period produced a struggle between two evenly matched teams, and no scoring was done. The Maroons hit their stride during the second and third periods, as Joe Hebert tallied twice after corner kicks and once after a scramble in front of the cage. The game at this point seemed to be in the bag for the Hermonites. Then Wilbraham began to move. Sheean, diminutive center, scored twice, and the opponents were still threatening as the game ended.

Frank Gifford started Hermon off on the right foot by scoring midway through the opening period of Hermon's third encounter, one in which the Williston booters held the Maroons to a I-I deadlock. Williston knotted the count in the third quarter and fought to a standstill through the fourth and two overtime periods.

Although the season was a successful one, it was somewhat marred when the Hermonites bowed 3-1 to Deerfield in the last game of the season. The opponents tallied in the first period, and Hebert tied the score by sending Bunny Rathbun's corner kick into the netting. The half ended with the score I-1. Deerfield then scored two times in the third period to put the game on ice.

Cross Country

ERMON'S cross-country team, under the able tutelage of Coaches Bayley and McVeigh, is consistently one of the most successful athletic groups in the school. This year's undefeated aggregation was no exception, and now the cross-country teams have dropped only one meet in the last six years. Jack Polhemus captured every race during the season, including the Thanksgiving Day contest and the intramural five-mile race, in times which should place him among the good college runners of the future.

The harriers defeated the Amherst Freshmen team 15-40 in the first meet of the year. Polhemus took first place by covering the 3.2 mile course in 17:15. Captain Moore followed closely behind.

Led by Polhemus, Sutherland, and Wheeler, the runners left the Williams Frosh by the wayside in a 16-39 meet. A Williams runner took fifth place. The team next traveled to Andover, where it ran its opponents into the dust and took eight of the first places to win 17-38. Polhemus won the 3.1-mile race in 16:35. He was followed by Sutherland and Wheeler of Hermon.

Except for the eighth and thirteenth places, Hermonites grasped the first fifteen places in the meet with Cushing to win by a perfect score of 15-40. Polhemus covered the 2.7-mile course in the near-record time of 14:04. He was followed by Sutherland, Wheeler, and Bowman.

Basketball

AFTER disclosing tremendous promise in several preseason game victories, the hoopsters lost four straight contests in the regular interscholastic season. The team consisted of several fighters and clever individual players who, however, could not seem to get going against their prepschool rivals.

The first contest of the season took place when a typical Boyden-coached Deerfield team displayed good teamwork as they gave the Maroons a 40-27 beating.

Vermont Academy defeated Hermon 43-25 in a contest at Saxton's River, in spite of Captain George Pittenger's pitching five baskets in a valiant attempt to turn the tide. A Wilbraham quintet pasted a 34-30 loss on the Maroons in a fast, close third game that was nip and tuck until midway in the final quarter. The score was 22-21 at the conclusion of the third stanza, but the Hermonites displayed poor last-period form.

The most exciting game of the year, a night contest which drew the largest crowd ever in the Hermon gymnasium, was the final one, in which the Maroons took a 60-47 licking from a Williston team which lost only two games during a long and hard schedule. Hermon's scrappy crew fell behind during the last period, after keeping on even terms with the Willistonians during the early part of the game. Big George Pittenger again led the attack, this time by throwing eighteen points through the hoop.

The season, a series of defeats? Yes, but one glorious for the memory it carries of a valiant team that fought in an aggressive, clean, sportsmanlike fashion.

Hockey

THE 1940 pucksters won two of their four interscholastic games and ended the season by bowing to an exceptionally powerful Alumni sextet.

Mount Hermon made three goals in the final period of the first game to defeat Williston 4-1. Tucker and Whitefield accounted for two goals apiece to clinch the game. A faster Wilbraham team set back the Maroons in the second contest by a 2-0 score. The opponents' fast offense chalked up two goals in the first period, but Wilbraham was held in check for the remainder of the game.

In the next game of the season the Hermonites regained their winning stride and defeated Vermont Academy 3-1. Hermon scored after six minutes of play when Urban pushed Garrison's rebound past the Vermont goalie. Vermont evened the count on a long shot later in the period. Malool made the next score near the end of the second period on a solo dash. Early in the last third of the game, Urban passed to Captain Garrison, who bulged the netting with the puck.

Near the end of Hermon's last contest of the interscholastic season, Saunders scored for Deerfield to give his team a I-O victory in a close game, during which neither team disclosed any marked superiority. The ice was slow, and a fast offense was impossible.

The season terminated with a game between a returning aggregation of alumni puck chasers and the varsity team. Billy Wyman, Hermon '35, and captain of the Middlebury College sextet, led his squad to a 6-3 victory in the fastest and most exciting contest of the year. Wyman played the flashiest game seen on Shadow Lake all year as he led the alumni team by pulling the hat trick. Coach Horton starred in the nets for the graduates and held the varsity's scoring to single goals by Malool, Nowell, and Garrison.

Wrestling

ERMON'S exponents of the grunt and groan won two meets and dropped an equal number during the 1940 season. The grapplers deteated the two prep-school teams on the schedule but were unable to cope with the frosh teams from the Little Three.

The first meet of the season resulted in a 23-11 victory for the Amherst Freshmen. Big Willy Williamson pinned his opponent, and Searle and Hoffman took decisions to score Hermon's points. The wrestlers took a 19½-14½ decision from Loomis to account for the Maroon's initial triumph of the year. An ill-fated team journeyed to Wesleyan and was emphatically beaten by a 27½-4½ count. In the Suffield fray, however, they garnered a 24-3 win in the most heart-warming meet of the year. Williamson pinned his opponent with a reverse nelson in 39 seconds to put the fans in a good mood as the season closed. Picture Identification: First Row—Shuttleworth, Komsa, Reifsnyder, Hoffmann, Mengel, Randall, Tibbetts; Second Row—Bosworth, Conde, Dean, Williamson, Searle, Manager Paddock.

Fencing

ERMON'S fencers defeated Wilbraham 16-6 during the past winter, but they were unable to cope with the strong attacks thrown at them by the Yale Frosh and Loomis. The Maroons owed much of their credit for winning the Wilbraham meet to the experience gained in the first meet of the year with the Yale '43 fencers. The final score of 15-9 against Hermon shows very well the comparative strength of the two teams.

14-13 was the score of the season's final meet in which Loomis took the measure of Mount Hermon. Hermon made its best showing in the epee, winning the matches 6-3. Loomis' strength in the foil and sabre, however, turned the tide in their advantage. Picture Identification: First Row—Winne, Pruyn, Chandler, Ellis; Second Row—Cady, Mylchreest, Kidder.

Skiing

THE Maroon's '40 skiers were good enough to win two of their meets, but they were drastically beaten by a far-superior Vermont Academy team in their initial fracas, Marshall's third in the downhill event being the closest any Hermonite came to winning.

More fertile fields were visited during the remainder of the season as the snow men rounded into form and copped a 200-100 victory from Williston. A Williston reporter afterwards called our team, "the boys from up north," one of the strongest prep-school teams in the state. The season ended as the Maroons paced Deerfield in a 296.2-241 contest. Captain Bob Birdsall closed his Hermon career in a burst of glory as he flashed home first in the slalom and cross-country events and copped a second in the jump, which was won by Larry Wilkinson. Picture Identification: Carmean, Dick Birdsall, Beatty, Marshall, Wilkinson, Moore, Hall, Bob Birdsall, Burtt, Nims, Larsen, Manager Shirley.

Swimming

THE mermen had a successful season in 1940, breaking several school records during its course. The Massachusetts State Freshmen suffered a 47-20 defeat in the first meet of the season. The Cuttermen took five firsts, including two relay races, and succeeded in winning two out of three places in every event. The highly rated Trinity Frosh came as close to defeat as they had come all season when the natators of Hermon attained to within three points of victory in a 34-32 meet. The freshmen captured five firsts to Hermon's three. Trinity's star, Tyler, hung up a new pool record of 2:16.4 in the 220-yard free style, breaking the old record by 15 seconds.

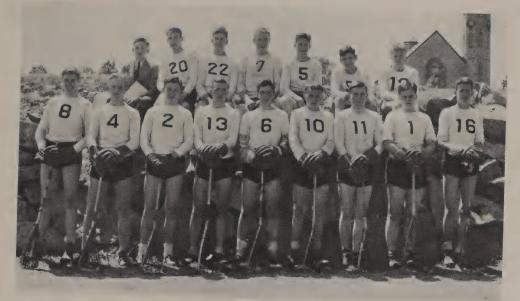

Kalland and Shelton paced the Maroons to a 34-32 victory over the Wesleyan '43 swimmers, as Hermon's captain broke the 100-yard breast-stroke record, and Kalland teamed with Shelton and Restin to slash the 150-yard medley relay record. The Deerfield Academy mermen decisively downed the Maroons in the final meet of the year by a 43-23 score. Shelton, in the breast stroke, took the only first for Hermon. Although he reduced his previous time, Restin was able to take merely a second in the back stroke.

Lacrosse

ERMON developed a strong lacrosse squad in 1939 and won three games out of a hard four-game schedule. The team swamped the Deerfield seconds in the season's opener by a score of 14-0. Johnny Truelson bulged the netting with six goals, as he started on his way to a glorious year, displaying an extremely high brand of lacrosse.

The lacrosse men continued their successful season by eking out a 10-9 decision over the Williams College Freshmen and bagging a 14-1 game over Kimball Union. Again in these encounters, Truelson starred and was high scorer, but he was not the whole factor by any means, for Coach Bollinger had two strong teams to back him.

Goalie O'Neil was outstanding in the final game of the season as Deerfield Academy, which always puts out an exceptionally powerful group of players, slapped an 8-3 licking on our boys. Truelson tallied first to put Hermon in the lead, but the Deerfield varsity rapidly overtook our boys and, after an even first half, ran away with the contest during the latter stages.

Picture Identification: First Row—Barrows, Harris, Sutherland, Buck, Truelson, Douglas, Paulison, O'Neil, Perry; Second Row—Manager Browning, Burnham, Koons, Williamson, Hoffmann, Hall, Jones.

Bob Quandle (Bubbie)

Jennis

THE Maroons were able to field two equally good tennis teams when the occasion arose, owing to a wealth of material on hand. Mal Peckham was the number one man on the strong Hermon team. The Springfield College Frosh took the measure of the Mermonites 7-4 in the Maroons first encounter. The boys hit their stride thereafter, however, and ended the season with two victories. They bombarded, belabored, and assaulted Williston Academy and walked away with a 13-1 meet. The Vermont Academy team was the next and final aggregation to endure the wrath of the Hermonites; 7-2 was the final count. Picture Identification: Gosselin, Rogers, Peckham, Brooks, Jacobs, Gunn, Buker, Garrison, Goebel.

Golf

RED WITZEL was the big gun in the attack of the 1939 golfers, for he took top honors in all four interscholastic meets as well as the father-and-son tournament held on Parents' Week-end. Fred combined his 36 for nine holes with his dad's score to total a 78 and take first place in the latter meet.

The Witzel-led Maroons took a 61/2-51/2 contest from Kimball Union as Fred's 83 was low score. Nichols Junior College bowed 101/2-71/2 in the next meet as Old Faithful slugged out an 81 to take top honors again. Although the golfers dropped their next match to Bay Path, 4-8, Witzel again defeated his opponent, and the other members of the team did well. Picture Identification: Archibald, Alexander, Dabajian, Witzel, Brannian, Romary, Howe.

Baseball

THE 1939 baseball team garnered a fifty-fifty record, winning two games and losing an equal number. The diamond men dropped an opener to the Massachusetts State Frosh. Hermon's consolation for the day came mostly from Jimmy Williams' home run and Red Burke's two hits.

In the next encounter, Hill pitched no-hit ball for seven innings, as the Maroons took a 4-2 decision from Williston. The athletes from Vermont Academy took a 5-4 game in the next contest to spill the Maroons' apple-cart. The Hermonites struck nine safe blows to the Vermonters' ten, but a last-inning rally fell one run short of sending the game into extra innings.

The Hermon tear reached its peak in the last game of the year, and Russ Malool pitched a one-hitter against a strong Deerfield team. The Maroons seemed to do everything correctly, as Nash, Williams, Whitcomb, and Vandewater scored in that order to take a 4-I decision from the highly rated opponents. Picture Identification: First Row—Van Dyke, Hill, Malool, Williams, Vandewater, Ehinger, Whitcomb; Second Row—Manager Adam Quandt, Nash, Tom Burke, John Burke, Manager Bob Quandt.

Jrack

HERMON'S strong track team closed its season with a superb record—three wins in three dual meets and a third place in the Amherst Interscholastics, the big event of the year.

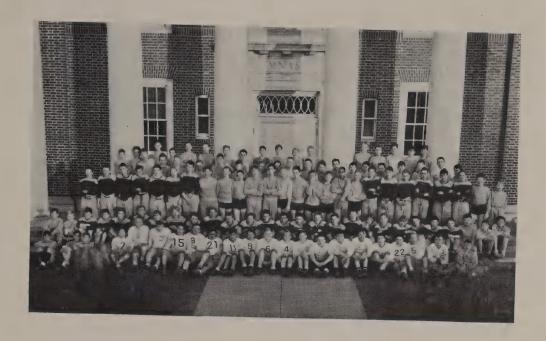

Jack Boeing, a one-man track team in himself, garnered eighteen points by means of three firsts and a second to lead the Maroons to a 79-38 victory over Deerfield in the first meet of the year. This one-man team took two firsts and a second in the next contest, and Hermon captured 68 points to Vermont's 34 and Greenfield's 15.

In the third meet, the Maroons gained a fifteen-point advantage over Massachusetts State Frosh, as Boeing, Burrows, and Sheffield placed one-two-three in the javelin to lead Hermon to a 62-55 victory.

The year ended in a blaze of action as Hermon fell behind only Newton and Choate in the Amherst Interscholastics. McKinnon of Newton broke the low-hurdles record of 16 seconds flat by covering the distance in 15.8. Sheffield broke the school javelin record when he threw his spear for a distance of 168 feet 4 inches, and Carlisle took firsts in the discus and the shot-put.

Junior League

THE Junior League activities at Mount Hermon are becoming increasingly prominent as the years roll by. More and more ex-Junior Leaguers are finding themselves on the varsity squads, especially in lacrosse, a sport in which players must be developed at school, for not many are proficient before coming to Hermon. Football is another sport which has taken advantage of Junior League training.

The Junior League coaching staff is better organized today than it was in by-gone days, and the well-drilled teams are a clear indication of the efficiency of the coaches. The schedules of interscholastic games are gradually being increased; not only that, some of the teams, particularly basketball, are having outside practice games besides the regular interscholastic contests.

The calibre of playing is no better and no worse than it was in the past, but the teamwork and the spirit of the boys are constantly improving. The Junior League machines are becoming as well-oiled as the varsity aggregations, and, as such, are equally important to the community.

· Dick Mark TAE

Club Council

THE Club Council worked in conjunction with a faculty council, consisting of the faculty advisers of the various clubs. The task which lay before this joint group last fall was a large one, and it was realized at that time that it would be difficult. Working together and expressing opinions freely slowly resulted in a set of regulations which met with the approval of all the clubs on the Hill. These rules were to benefit both the student body and the clubs in that they prevented either from making hasty decisions. The clubs themselves were drawn more closely together with the adoption of a "purpose." The wisdom of experience and the spirit of youth joined each other at these meetings, so that the results were wise and satisfying. May the Club Council of the future years be afforded the opportunity of gaining the experience realized by this year's council.

Dickerson

THIS year, under the able direction of Mr. Mirtz, the Dickerson Society experienced its most successful season in recent history. As the other clubs have gone back to definite purposes, so the Dickerson Club has revived its original purpose of work in science. The main interest of the group this year has been confined to the construction of a nature trail. When the inter-club debating season came around, the "Dicks" made a fine showing by getting into the final round. The club also did very well by working its way into the finals in the inter-club basketball tournament. As well as spirited cooperation in the inter-society affairs, there has been fine fraternal spirit and companionship among the members. The club has run up against many handicaps in its effort to make the club a useful and interesting organization. In spite of these handicaps, the members feel that the club is doing its part to foster such activities which go to make the school a better one.

Good Government

THE past year has been one of reorganization and rededication among the societies, and it has been the constant effort of the Good Government Club to cooperate with the administration and the other societies. It is the conviction of the club that service in some specific field of endeavor may best be rendered by Good Government, by a revival of its original purpose; namely, to stimulate interest in and knowledge of politics among the men of Mount Hermon. No other aim could be more pertinent and vital in such a decade as that through which we are passing. Toward this goal the club has worked during the past year by sponsoring frequent forums and meetings, both with student leaders, and with such outstanding figures as Kirby Page. It has thus been found possible to bring within the limits of its work problems concerned not only with our own government, but with the development of international good-will.

Along with their activities, they have found a deepening of the sense of brotherhood and fellowship, which has always been a highlight of club membership, and they look with pride to the rich heritage which is theirs.

Hayward

THE Hayward Club has endeavored this year to combine fellowship and industry in order to be of some service to the campus. With the help of Mr. Henriksen, the faithful honorary, and with the whole-hearted cooperation and work displayed by its members, the club has this year shown an interest in dramatics by sponsoring the production of the four class plays. This activity, newly adopted this year, was entered into with the same zest and fun as that which marked the various other club activities. So it is that those of its members who are leaving feel confident that the club in 1940-1941 will continue to carry out the policy so much enjoyed during the past nine months. We feel that Hayward, as well as the other clubs, has had a successful year in proving that the clubs can do something constructive on the Hill and have fun doing it; may the following year confirm our belief.

Philomathean

THIS year has witnessed a period of trial and reform among all the clubs on the Hill. Philo has striven to cope with the new standards and advance them in the interest of Mount Hermon. We are confident that the clubs, including Philo, are headed for a rising and more optimistic future. Throughout the year Philo has enthusiastically participated in the customary and unique intra-club activities, — the lively basketball games, the popular song fest, and the more challenging art of debating. A fraternal interest and cooperation has been prevalent in advancing the purpose and the program of the club. Philo feels it is doing much to help Hermon by benefiting its members with a helpful knowledge of elocution. Outings and other social activities have been interwoven with the literary accomplishments of the club to make a successful and enjoyable year Through friendships developed, every Philo member sincerely believes that it is this social value received that will be of most significance in the future. Under the inspiring guidance of Mr. Dunn and Mr. Morrow, the Club has seen a successful year. From the large body of men who are leaving comes the heartfelt desire that the men who remained behind may strive for a banner year in 1940-1941, and a continuance of the true Philo spirit.

N its endeavor to carry out its purpose, Pieria feels that long steps have been taken during this past year. Starting with a group that was interested in the club, its members, and the life and welfare of the school, the Pierians have pulled together as they never had before. We do not wish to cite particular instances when and where Pieria has been outstanding; we feel that Pieria's record will speak for itself and believe that the progress gained this year will be an incentive for quicker and steadier progress in the future. It is only right that we give the bulk of the credit to our never-failing councelor and adviser, Mr. Fleckles. Along with the other clubs Pieria has once again enjoyed the spirited cooperation and the goodly fellowship of the interclub debates, basketball games, and song fest. As the year draws to a close, the Pierians feel that they have accomplished their goal — namely, the building up and the maintaining of the morale of Mount Herman School by fostering such activities as those which make for the betterment of its members and the students of the school.

Cum Laude

THE Cum Laude Society is a national secondary school fraternity which corresponds to the collegiate Phi Beta Kappa Society. The Mount Hermon chapter of the Cum Laude Society received its charter in 1929. Membership is restricted to those students who have the highest scholastic averages among the boys who have been at Mount Hermon for two years or longer. Members of the faculty who have been elected to Phi Beta Kappa at college are honorary members, and the heads of departments may also be honorary members. The object of the society is the encouragement of high attainment in scholastic pursuits in the secondary schools. Mt. Hermon's top-notch honor men are William Hamilton, Valedictorian, and Robert Birdsall, Salutatorian.

Church Council

T is the primary function of the Student Church Council to organize and direct all student activities connected with the work of the Mount Hermon Church. This year there have been carried out several projects which seem worthy of mention. I 30 copies of the book "Larry" were sold following a chapel service describing the book. In the annual drive for contributions to the Far Eastern Student Service Fund almost $200 was raised through personal contributions and participation in community "cracker-and-milk" suppers. The Council has sponsored frequent student forums, the annual Christmas drive for old clothes, and the sending of delegations to several conferences.

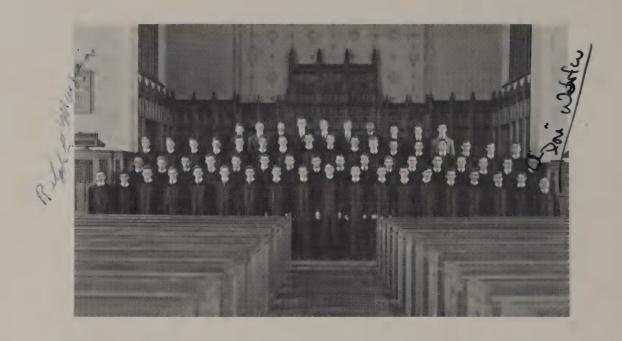

It is the hope of the members that, by expanding its membership, and consequently its activities, in the years ahead, the Council may perform an even larger and more lasting service to the school.

Debating

DEBATING for 1939-1940 has been held under the auspices of the Lyceum Club which, at the suggestion of Mr. Ledgard, faculty coach, adopted the activity as its project. The program has consisted of an alternation of interscholastic and club debates extending over a period of four months. Debates with Deerfield Academy and Cushing Academy were significant events of the winter season; another debate is planned for the spring. For the first time in several years all the clubs have participated on the Inter-Society Contest for the Alumni Cup. Surviving at the moment are Dickerson, Philomathea, and Pieria. The support of the student body has been keenly and generously provided.

Choir

THE Choir for 1939-1940 consisted of seventy-four members. Mr. Gallagher molded the choir from a very small nucleus to the largest musical organization that Mount Hermon has yet produced. This capable leader took up where he had left off the year before, and guided the choir up to a high point of efficiency. The annual Christmas Concert was given on the last Sunday preceding the December vacation. The Sacred Concert was presented again this year through the combined efforts of the Choir, the Seminary Estey Chorus, and the members of the student bodies of both schools. An innovation in the usual yearly program of the choir was introduced last March with the presentation of the Palm Sunday service. This service was given on both sides of the river in conjunction with the Estey Chorus. The daily choir carried out its function of leading the community in chapel services.

a Capella

THE Mount Hermon A Capella choir is gradually gaining nation-wide recognition owing to its various broadcasts with the Estey Chorus of the Northfield Seminary. Hermon's choral groups consist of seventy-four students, but among this number, only forty-eight, after taking rigid breathing, voice, and reading tests are admitted to the A Capella organization. In addition to singing with the Seminary Choir at the Sacred Concert in May, Mr. Gallagher's finer voices blend with the choirs of Northfield at the Christmas and Palm Sunday services.

Last year's broadcast over a nation-wide hook-up completed four years on the air for the Northfield Schools. Evidences of the fine work done by the A Capella choir are the numerous letters and telegrams to the school that follow each concert. Hermon students have a right to be proud, as they are, of their A Capella choir.

Glee Club

THE 1939-1940 Glee Club was notable for its unusual amount of pep. Its repertoire consisted mainly of a colorful group of folk songs and sea chanteys. Under Mr. Gallagher's leadership it participated at several banquets in West Hall and the surrounding community. A new custom was inaugurated in the Christmas vesper service of singing Christmas carols from the Chapel tower after the concert. Besides those activities, it gave a well-received concert in assembly in February and the secular concert on graduation week-end. This year's organization was one of the school's most successful.

Classical Orchestra

UNDER the able direction of Mr. Paul Ivory, the Classical Orchestra experienced new and added interest during the past year. The work of the orchestra has been, in general, to promote interest and a love for good music as a necessary part of an education. Although small in number, the group was able to give two well-received concerts during the course of the year. A great improvement was shown over Hermon orchestras of previous years, and the 1939-1940 organization under the presidency of Don Gooding, should be congratulated for the successful presentations they have offered.

Hermon Knights

THE Hermon Knights, as large an asset as ever to the social life of the Northfield Schools, have upheld the high standards of previous years in providing a smooth, relaxed swing for the average dancer, and a little of the "solid swing" for the jitterbugs. Under the advisership of Mr. Niblock, and with Don Gooding as leader, this orchestra has achieved the enviable reputation of being a capable all-round dance band, and the success of next year's organization has been well considered in that half of the members are undergraduates.

Band

THIS year the Mount Hermon Band, under the capable leadership of Mr. Jeffs, has set a first-class example for similar organizations in years to follow. It seems that during the preceding decade, the band had always started with a large turnout, only to dwindle rapidly away to a few members; but this year, all members have cooperated with the most satisfactory results. The band made a successful showing at all football games and at two night-basketball contests. In addition, the organization played at two spring concerts. President Gooding is to be congratulated upon the good example which he set by his superior playing and unfailing interest.

Schauffler Associates

*HE Schauffler Associates is a club consisting of boys who THE Schauttler Associates is a club state of books are interested in the reading and the discussion of books by some of the more important modern authors and by some of the less-read, but equally significant present-day writers. The members of this club are responsible for the beginning of an Index to the old issues of the "Hermonite," the purpose in mind being that in the future someone will write a complete history of our school. In past years the group has promoted the Annual Hobby Show Exhibit and the Henry Huntting contest and is planning on continuing both of these for the current year. Another function of the club is the sponsoring of a Private Library Reading Contest, a prize being given to the student submitting the best list of books. Its members have visited such places of interest as the Henry Huntting Company in Springfield. The organization has also journeyed to neighboring libraries with the purpose of studying their systems and comparing these features of library work with those which our own library has to offer. It is also the desire of the club to create a more active interest in the library among the students, so that they may more easily find the books which they want by learning how to use the library properly.

Hermonite

THE "HERMONITE" has been the news organ of the school for over fifty years. Starting last September, its Board endeavored to take advantage of all the accomplishments of past Boards and add a few new wrinkles of its own. During the year it conducted polls on international, national, and local questions. As the students and the faculty on the Hill cooperated very satisfactorily in this experiment, it proved a worthwhile endeavor.

New feature columns were added to the paper and used to much wider extent than had been the case with earlier corresponding efforts. These included letters to the editor, gossip about students and faculty, news tidbits of minor importance, and sports news. These new features put life into the paper and were favored by the student body.

The members on the Board were willing workers in their attempts to improve the "HERMONITE," offering many valuable suggestions on which the editors were able to capitalize. The juniors on the Board showed particular promise; they are certain to carry on for another year the high standards which the school newspaper has been setting for the past half a century, a standard which has repeatedly placed it high in the ranks when judged both apart from and with other school periodicals.

THE PLAYERS

COMMUTERS' CLUB

International Club

THE Mount Hermon International Club is organized for those students who are interested in furthering student interest in international affairs. The outside activities of the group have included a meeting of the Franklin County peace group in Greenfield which the club has actively supported and at various times supplied with a deputation. The group has been represented at the Foreign Policy Association meetings.

The club has organized open forums with outside speakers who have come to Hermon, and whose talks proved interesting enough to warrant questions and discussion. Various faculty members have been asked to prepare debates on subjects of interest, debates that led to vigorous discussions. The club continues strong, although its membership has been narrowed to only those who are truly interested in its purpose.

The Players

NFORMALLY organized except during the times a play was under preparation, The Mount Hermon Players have this year produced one full length play and four one-act plays. The group's first undertaking, Sherriff's "Journey's End", under the direction of Mr. Thomas Donovan, was produced successfully as the annual Fall Play, in spite of illness in the cast, and provided a Saturday evening's entertainment to a full house. The class plays, directed by Mr. William Ledgard, sponsored and staged by Hayward, with the acting by the members of the different classes, were given under the plan of the class-play competition at various times throughout the year to the Hermon audience.

Commuters' Club

UNDER the very able leadership of Coach Henriksen, the Commuters' Club has been trying to bring about closer cooperation between its members and the rest of the school. Among its interesting activities during the 1939-1940 the club attended a football game at Massachusetts State College. In the spring of 1939 the Commuters made a baseball score board, and presented it to the school. This year the club gave to the "Y" Building some ping-pong racquets. The club is very much indebted to Mount Hermon for allowing it to use the Social Hall in the afternoons and for all the many other ways in which the school has helped it. All the members of the club wish to thank Coach Henriksen for the able way in which he has led them this year.

Navigation Club

THE Navigation Club has, for the most part, been an informal "get together" of a group of Hermon boys. These youths, who come from all parts of the seaboard of the United States, are united in a common interest. Most of them have spent their summers sailing all types of boats on varied waters. The school season comes, and they are forced to leave their interest. Rather than put their hobby aside while at school, they get together to learn something of the theory of sailing.

Mr. Sargent, being a teacher of mathematics, helped the boys learn the use of the sextant and other mathematical aids to sailing. Model hulls were used to simulate actual conditions, from which the young sailors were able to visualize the proper thing to do when faced with a similar situation. The members should be able to put to good use during the next racing season the information they learned during the winter.

Forestry Club

Several years ago the Forestry Club was organized as one of the newly founded interest groups of the campus. It was started by a small group of boys with the purpose of gaining instruction in forestry, especially with reference to the opportunities it affords as a life work, and of interesting those having forestry as a hobby. Under the careful and interesting instruction of Mr. Pyper and with the full cooperation of the administration, the small group has progressed rapidly. It has several acres of school property under its supervision and has transplanted several thousand small pines in the past five years. At the meetings prepared talks and illustrations are presented by the members, and arrangements are made for trips to the cabin. Each year the club participates in the Hobby Show, exhibiting some of the more interesting phases of forestry; then it has fulfilled another purpose, that of helping the students to understand the ways in which forestry enters into our everyday life.

Faraday Club

THIS club, one of the newest on the hill, was founded last year because of a growing desire among the students for an interest group in science. Its name is no doubt recognized as that of one of the greatest scientists in history, Michael Faraday. We all hope that the club will give the boys a chance to learn more about the particular phase of science in which they are most interested. Mr. Laurence, the adviser, has spent much of his time in helping to get the club off to a good start and we hope his efforts will be duly rewarded. Among the group's projects this year are a weather bureau, which is hoped will be a valuable partner to the thermometer on Silliman Lab., and the showcase on the first floor of the same building. The organization is highly indebted to Dr. Porter, who was directly responsible for getting the case, and to Messrs. Hatch and Bowman who have also been immensely helpful with their generosity in lending equipment from their respective laboratories.

RIFLE

Rifle

Bry Brugg

THE Rifle Club, which originated in 1935, and which has always had its large membership, has become one of the most popular organizations on the hill. The interests of the members lie largely in the encouragement of good marksmanship and sportsmanship, as well as in the desire to increase their knowledge in the general use and handling of firearms. The club this year is accomplishing its purpose under the able guidance of Mr. Paul Wilson.

In the Spring the Rifle Club spent some of its time in arranging a Father and Son Tournament for Parents' Day and preparing an exhibit for the Hobby Show. The club also started to repair the range that had been damaged by the weather. When finished, it will be something that will last for the use of future members.

Printing

THIS year with Mr. Pearsall of Northfield directing, and Dave Van Voorhees coaching the members on the actual use of the job printing press. The "Gutenberg Printers" have tried to emulate the better printing schools' regular courses with remarkable success. Besides making a valuable asset to the community, by printing bulletins, tickets, small pamphlets and the like, members of the club have visited several large plants specializing in some one division of the graphic arts. The club has increased greatly in capacity, and has set a mark for future members to strive toward.

Riding

DURING the past few years, the Riding Club has become one of the most popular of the interest groups on the Hill. Open to all who have the will to see the country from atop a horse, it has given many a thrill to the Hermonite on the trails around the stable at Northfield. Although the club is built around riding, a banquet is held each year, and frequent trips to the cabin are made. In winter, the horsemen of Hermon can be found practicing that new sport, ski-joring, for the contest on Founder's Day.

A HERMON POEM

I look upon these sturdy hills that face Mount Hermon's site

And pray that I may be as strong as they, for God and right;

I see the farms that men have tilled to meet their daily need

And pray that I may also plant my share of useful seed;

I sit within these Chapel walls where

love and peace endure

And hope, throughout the coming years

that I may be as pure.

I feel the goodness of this place since
Hermon first began

And pray that while I live, I'll strive to be a Godly man.

N publishing this, the 1940 GATEWAY, the board has attempted to add several new features and make many changes which we hope will be for the best. Within these covers is the result of our work to bring the Senior Class together as one unit and to prolong the memories of close friendship for many days to come. We hope that we have succeeded.

Our deep appreciation is extended to those men who advised us wisely and made the production of this book possible, namely, — Mr. Arthur D. Platt, Mr. Louis E. Smith, and Mr. Robert W. Kelly.
